Testimonials

Conrad Maldives you've never left our minds since our wedding day!

Planning a wedding ceremony, especially one that may not be in your hometown, could have been difficult... But the team at Conrad made it an easy win. They've sort it out all of our requirements and received our 25 guests that traveled from the other side of the world with always a smile on the face, indulging every one of them and surpassing our expectations. If you are considering a wedding destination, be 100% sure that Conrad Maldives is the place to be!

Regarding the organization before our arrival at Rangali Island, we had a couple phone calls with our wedding coordinator, which allowed us establishing a trust relationship. Our wedding was not a one-day thing - but a full week experience wedding. Our family and friends had an absolutely fabulous time. It was spectacular from the start until the end. The hotel professionals helped us planning an underwater cocktail at Ithaa Restaurant. Fishes, arrays and astonishing scenery surrounded us and we could toast our happiness one day prior to the wedding day.

The sample wine tasting was very good. We could taste each variety of white and red wine as well as champagnes to be served at the wedding reception, matching the dishes. The food offering at Conrad Maldives is amazing and the Food and Beverage Team managed to prepare even the wedding cake, as we wanted.

For the wedding blessing and reception at the beach we were free to choose our decoration, flowers, music as well as the dinner menu. The hotel team was capable to construct a wooden-structure with fairy hanging lights, just like we've wanted...

Under the stars we had the most elegant and sumptuous dinner we've could imagine. Our friends and family are still marvel at the food and service. Many are saying it was the best wedding they had ever been to! Everything was perfect and the part we liked the most is that we didn't have to worry about a thing. We totally enjoyed every minute, as we knew the Conrad team was there for us with a flawless service.

We highly recommend getting married at Conrad Maldives, but prepared to be blown away...

Conrad Maldives is the perfect beach wedding venue you can imagine. It offers everything you need to make your day exceptional and one to remember forever. If we would get married again, be sure we would not change a single thing! We are so grateful for your professionalism. Thank you for giving us a truly memorable experience.

Wow worthy hospitality

"We wanted to have a beach wedding instead of a traditional Chinese one, and the Maldives was the top destination on our list. We are previous guests of the resort and were so impressed and we had to return.

The experience was so memorable, the beach, sea view, resort staff and loves ones around us to witness our 'I do' moment, all made our wedding a truly special experience. The resort surpassed all our expectations, after the ceremony our private dinner on sunset tip was unforgettable for the atmosphere, feeling and taste.

For couples who are thinking of getting married at Conrad Maldives, it has gorgeous beaches and sea for you and your family to enjoy your own private ceremony, you will surely 'wowed' by the Conrad hospitality".
