Maalifushi by COMO, opening in December 2013, is a new island resort from COMO Hotels and Resorts. The island, located in the sparkling turquoise waters of the Maldives' southerly Thaa Atoll, will feature a mix of 66 landed and over-water suites and villas.

Maalifushi will offer guests three dining options: 'Madi' restaurant will serve all-day international, Maldivian and healthful COMO Shambhala Cuisine, while 'Thila' pool and lounge bar will specialise in salads, pizzas and wood-baked seafood. There will also be 'Tai', a Japanese-inspired restaurant for sashimi and sushi.

A COMO Shambhala Retreat will provide holistic wellness and Asian-inspired therapies including signature massages, facials and Ayurveda. Eight treatment rooms, some of them double, are set over-water with views across the Indian Ocean.

Maalifushi is a 50-minute seaplane flight from Cocoa Island, COMO's original property in the Maldives, providing the opportunity to island-hop between the two properties on a dual-centre experience.
